

CASCADE HORIZON BAND BEND, OREGON
Music on the Deschutes Band Camp

at Central Oregon Community College Bend Campus
July 23 - 27, 2018

Committee Chair and Director: Sue Steiger

The Cascade Horizon Band is proud to host an adult band camp on the campus of Central Oregon Community College in Bend, Oregon, on the bank of the Deschutes, river of the falls, famous for its stunning views and exciting recreational activities.

The camp will feature an intermediate/advanced level large ensemble led by host conductor, Sue Steiger, Lew Sbrana, conductor of Sonoma New Horizons director, and Michael Gesme, conductor of the Central Oregon Symphony, Professor of Music and Chair of the Department of Fine Arts of COCC.

Besides the dedicated rehearsal hall, the 2-year-old Residence Hall on campus offers comfortable and convenient lodging with modern amenities and majestic mountain views. All facilities are within easy walking distance. Most meals and snacks will be provided by the French multi-national service company, Sodexo.

World renowned for its craft beers, Bend is the home of 22 breweries as well as award-winning restaurants and a growing selection of distilleries and wineries. There is an abundance of extracurricular activities for all tastes!

Visit us at: CascadeHorizonBand.Org

